Pasternak Wine Imports Announces Enhanced Relationship with Ets. Jean-Pierre Moueix, Libourne

HARRISON, NY February 12th, 2010 Pasternak Wine Imports, (PWI) one of the nation's leading importers of fine wines from around the world, has extended their commercial relationship with the noted and celebrated French négociant firm of Ets. Jean-Pierre Moueix, Libourne.

Pasternak's established successful nine year relationship with Ets. Jean-Pierre Moueix, has now broadened PWI's offerings to include: Château Lafleur, Pensées de Lafleur, Château La Grave-a- Pomerol as the exclusive US Importer as well as the Châteaux of Château Hosanna and Château Petrus all from the famous Pomerol appellation.

In making the announcement, PWI's President and CEO James Galtieri commented, "We are delighted to have so many offerings from what we consider the foremost personality on the right bank of Bordeaux, Ets. Jean -Pierre Moueix in our portfolio.

Christian Moueix, President of Ets. Jean-Pierre Moueix, notes, "We have always enjoyed working with Pasternak and it is with immense pleasure that we add to their portfolio of top Pomerol châteaux. These new offerings should make them a powerhouse for Pomerol wines."

The appointments were effective January 21, 2009.
