Light, green-tinged yellow. Lively aromas of white peach, pear, nectarine, honey and minerals. Dense and chewy, but the flavors of nectarine and orchard fruits are kept fresh by zesty acidity and a minty quality. Slightly dry-edged on the finish, which features good spicy lift and a suggestion of fennel.

"The bouquet provides plenty of kick as well as a hint of acacia. The palate is dry and full of green apple and nuts. Remains dry and seltzer-like on the finish, where light citrus fills any voids...a solid white Rioja."

“Light yellow-gold. Reticent citrus and melon aromas are brightened by fresh floral and mineral notes. Tangy lemon and orange flavors become richer with air, taking a turn to honeydew and picking up a touch of warmth. An easy style that should be served well-chilled.”

“One of the best known Viura on the market. Pale straw. Crisp, dry and fresh-tasting with a lightly fruited nose and lean palate. Nicely tuned acidity...interesting flavor profile of lychee and a round mouth feel.”
